THIRTY DAYS

Was the Sentence Meted Out to Two Offenders in Police Court Friday Morning by Mayor Shields.

Mike Sweeney was up in front of Mayor Shields in police court Friday morning for the third time in the history of the present city administration upon the charge of being drunk and disorderly. The mayor promptly assessed him the full fine of twenty dollars and costs.
Mike did not have the change and was compelled to go to jail for thirty days.
Fred Anderson was up for being drunk and disorderly and resisting Officer Fox while the latter was arresting him.
Fred drew twenty dollars and in default was sent over for thirty days. One plain drink paid three dollars and costs and was released and two plain drinks were sent over to the bastille for three days each.
